

Summer Series: The Parables of Jesus

“Parable of the Fig Tree”

Don Calvert (Luke 13:1-9) August 11, 2019

Question: Why would a good, all-powerful God allow _____ to _____?

(Bible/Notes) _____

First Warning – If you believe that sin is the basis of all _____, then you should _____ right away; _____ calamity might be next.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Second Warning – Sin does indeed lead to calamity...at the final _____; our _____ now should be one of _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

1st Change – Understand that God is gracious and long-suffering toward people; He does more than enough to encourage us to _____ and _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

2nd Change – Stop assuming God doesn’t have the right to _____ what doesn’t _____ fruit in His vineyard.

(Bible/Notes) _____

3rd Change – Realize that it is God’s _____ we are given, _____ is the time to bear fruit; so, don’t _____ it.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Implication #1 – Evil is not “out there”; it lives in the heart of every person and only through _____ can it be _____ and _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Implication #2 – We can stop extending the problem of _____ by dealing with our willingness to _____ in _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Implication #3 – The truth of my _____ isn’t rooted in my _____; its rooted in who _____ says I am.

(Bible/Notes) _____
