

Break Every Chain

Destroying Strongholds in Your Mind

Don Calvert (2 Corinthians 10:1-7) November 22, 2020

Strongholds: Strongholds are false habitual _____ patterns that have formed in our _____ through broken _____ or from the intensity of traumatic experiences.

Results of Strongholds: People are not in bondage to past traumas and broken relationships; they are in bondage to the _____ they _____ about _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Question 1: Do you have any strongholds in your _____ that needs _____?

Question 2: Do we have to _____ of these strongholds for the rest of our lives?

(Bible/Notes) _____

Vital Truth: All of us were born into the middle of an _____ that is being played out every day in our _____ lives.

(Bible/Notes) _____

1st Step – Keep no stronghold a _____ once God has revealed it; _____ those you spiritually trust for _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

2nd Step – Never use the _____ of this _____ to destroy strongholds that are _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Vital Truth #2: If what we are being told to believe does not reflect God’s _____, then what we _____ will not reflect _____.

3rd Step – _____ that you are in a war and pick up your _____ weapons and _____ God’s way.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Implication #1: When all you can see is the _____ of your situation, have _____ that _____ is using others to help you.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Implication #2: This next month in your _____ time ask God to _____ to you any mental, spiritual, or emotional stronghold in your life that needs to be _____.