

Break Every Chain

Living in Our Freedom

Don Calvert (Ephesians 5:1-17) December 27, 2020

Central Reality: The life of _____ is freedom ~vs~ The life of _____ is enslavement.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Overriding Truth: God has provided all the spiritual _____ we need, but when it comes to spiritual attacks, we have to assume our _____ or be _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

1st Example of Life – We are called to _____ God, just as Jesus did, living out a _____ life of _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Example of Darkness – Disobedient _____ of darkness that render God’s people _____ and _____ to the rest of the world.

(Bible/Notes) _____

2nd Example of Life – We become _____ bearers who reflect God’s light to the world, which in turn makes His light visible to those _____ in _____.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Implication #1: Living In Your Freedom requires that you take a _____ moral inventory of your life, to see if there is any darkness you are living in that needs to be _____ and _____ over.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Implication #2: Living In Your Freedom requires that you wisely redeem your _____ in order to _____ the _____ in this world.

(Bible/Notes) _____

Implication #3: Living In Our Freedom as a church requires that we assume _____ for _____ others break every chain in their lives, so that they _____ out God’s _____ here on the earth.

(Bible/Notes) _____

